Former football player lists her home for $1.499M

This Hampton Bays home — owned by Andra Douglas, author, artist and former quarterback for the New York Sharks — features two bedrooms and two bathrooms.

The former owner and quarterback of the New York Sharks, a women's professional tackle football team, has placed her Hampton Bays home on the market for $1.499 million.

The house — owned by Andra Douglas, also an author and artist — features two bedrooms and two bathrooms.

It has an open layout, a new granite kitchen, a dining room with one of the home's three fireplaces, and a living room with walls of glass that overlook Shinnecock Bay. The house, listed by the team of Constance Porto and Anne Marie Franca-villa of Douglas Elliman Real Estate, also features an art studio with a loft, a basement and an attached, two-car garage.

Situated on a .23-acre lot along Smith Creek, the house has a wraparound deck and a deep-water dock.

Douglas acquired the Sharks, the longest-running women's professional football team, in 2000. The team was sold recently and now is called the New York Wolves. Douglas is also founder of the Fins Up Foundation, which focuses on strengthening young women's self-esteem through team sports. — MICHAEL GAVIN
