Douglas Elliman's Matthew Slosar Joins the 1995 Broadway Office

After Nearly a Decade on a Top Performing Team, Slosar Launches His Own Business at Elliman

New York, NY (December 5, 2018) – Douglas Elliman Real Estate is pleased to announce that Matthew Slosar, a top-performing broker whose business has more than tripled in the last two years, has launched his own business following nearly ten years of success as part of one of the firm's consistently-ranked top ten teams. Slosar, who was originally based out of the firm's 575 Madison Avenue headquarters, will now make it's 1995 Broadway office his new home.

"Matthew brings a deep understanding of New York City's complex and competitive real estate market, particularly here in Manhattan, and we are thrilled to have him join our Upper West Side Office," said John Lawrence, Elliman's Executive Manager of Sales, 1995 Broadway and Harlem. "He meets each client with respect, discretion, and unparalleled service, and I look forward to working more closely with him as he continues his exciting career at Elliman."

Slosar's expertise and superior customer service have led him to successfully assist numerous high-net-worth families and A-list celebrities, as well as first-time home buyers in his rapidly-growing client base. Recently, empty-nesters and bi-coastal clients looking for pied-a-terres in Manhattan have also been seeking out his service. A testament to his success, The Real Deal named Matthew 'Broker of the Week' twice in the past year.

"After a great run as part of a successful team, I am excited to take this next step in my career and set out on my own," said Slosar. "For the past few years my business has been steadily growing, as has my family. It feels like the right time in my life to be launching my own business and steering my own ship. As I continue my journey, I am thrilled to have found a new home at Elliman's 1995 Broadway office and to work with the talented agents and staff there."
