FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Top Producing Agent Rollie Jordan Joins Douglas Elliman

Denver, CO (February 21, 2019) – Douglas Elliman Real Estate, the third largest residential real estate brokerage company in the United States, is pleased to announce that top producing agent, Rollie Jordan, has joined the firm's Colorado brokerage. She joins after 22 years with The Kentwood Company.

“Rollie is a trusted and strategic broker with over two decades of experience where she has built a strong and loyal network of clients. She is highly regarded in the industry and is one of the most resilient and tenacious agents,” said Joshua Saslove, President, Douglas Elliman Colorado. “We are thrilled to have Rollie join us and she will be a valuable addition to our firm.”

Throughout her career, Rollie has consistently ranked in the top one percent of residential real estate sales in Denver and is known for her innate ability to find the right homes and sell properties for her clients, even for the sometimes most difficult to sell homes, as well as providing personalized customer service. Notably, Rollie is also acclaimed for continually selling some of the most expensive homes in Denver, along with famous properties like the iconic Sleeper House on Genesee Mountain.

“Moving to Douglas Elliman is the next greatest chapter of my career and offers me the best opportunity for growing my business. I have been closely watching how Elliman entered the Aspen market and am impressed by their ability to be immediately successful and then sustain that success continuing to attract the best properties and agents,” said Rollie Jordan. “I want to be with a company known for a solid understanding of how to approach luxury residential real estate globally.”

Jordan credits her success to a long history of building relationships in Denver. After graduating from the University of Denver, she made Denver her home. She began her career in the wholesale and retail clothing business and owned two popular high-end clothing stores. Through her retail business, she created a foundation of contacts that stretched the entire Front-Range. When she made the leap to real estate, her solid network of connections to the most prominent names in the state fueled instant success. Jordan has worked tirelessly to continue this type of relationship building through philanthropic involvement producing results similar to her real estate business. In 2016, she was given a Volunteer of the Year Award for her fundraising prowess at the annual Elway's Benefit for Denver Health. Jordan has also been active in supporting Volunteers of America, Women's Foundation of Colorado and National Jewish Hospital.

Over the past two decades, Jordan has proven to be one of Denver's most resilient and tenacious agents. Through the best and worst of Denver's real estate markets, Jordan always creates new opportunities. She was the number two individual producer in the Kentwood Cherry Creek office in 2018, with over $27,000,000 in annual sales. Every year of her career, she has ranked in the top 5 at Kentwood Cherry Creek. Few individual agents have this type of consistency and sales dominance in Denver. She touts an extensive client list and has experience working with some of the most elusive and prominent names in Denver. She is bringing over $30 million in potential new business to Elliman.
