FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Douglas Elliman Launches New Online Learning System, Elliman Constant Learning

Douglas Elliman Training Center Provides 75-Course Curriculum for Agents

New York, New York (May 5, 2020) – Douglas Elliman, the largest brokerage in the New York Metropolitan area and one of the largest independent residential real estate brokerages in the United States, is pleased to announce the launch of its new online learning system, Elliman Constant Learning, through the Elliman Agent Training Center. Elliman Constant Learning consists of 75 courses spanning various topics beyond real estate in professional development, entrepreneurialism, business writing, public speaking, marketing and more.

“At Douglas Elliman, we are committed to providing our agents the tools they need to establish a successful career,” explains Scott Durkin, President & COO of the real estate giant. “Jeffrey Stanton has gone above and beyond in founding this new online learning portal, granting agents the opportunity to take advantage of insightful courses to better themselves as real estate experts and entrepreneurs.”

Jeffrey Stanton, Senior Vice President of Learning and Development, has led the Agent Training Center for nearly five years. In addition to offering new agent orientation, professional development and coaching, Jeffrey has expanded the training center’s pool of resources to include an innovative system that allows agents to discover new skills and advance their craft remotely through Elliman Constant Learning. Courses are offered exclusively to Douglas Elliman agents and staff online, in video, text and audio formats – all free of charge.

“While the Coronavirus pandemic might prevent us from conducting in-person classes at the Elliman Agent Training Center, our coaching prevails,” says Jeffrey. “It was important for us to accelerate the development of our Elliman Constant Learning platform to provide agents the education and guidance they need to further their careers while sheltering in place. Based on our live virtual classes, which have had 18,000 users to date, we expect Elliman Constant Learning to be an incredibly successful initiative.”

All Douglas Elliman agents and employees have access to Elliman Constant Learning via their Elliman email. Courses are now available in internet marketing, human resources, career development, supervisors and managers, writing, small business training for entrepreneurs, sales and more. Douglas Elliman will continue to grow the curriculum to incorporate relevant topics to the current environment and state of the real estate market.
