FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Douglas Elliman Releases Its Spring / Summer 2021 Elliman Magazine

Elliman's Namesake Publication Celebrates the Sanctuary of Home & Stunning Portfolio of Resale, New Development & Rental Properties

New York, NY (March 18, 2021) – Douglas Elliman, one of the largest independent residential real estate brokerages in the United States, has released its Spring/Summer 2021 issue of Elliman magazine with over 260 pages celebrating the home as one's sanctuary. In a time when home life has taken center stage, readers will discover the power of one's own backyard as a sustainable garden, explore the kitchen's culinary potential, and re-imagine movie nights under the stars. In response to the current climate created by COVID-19, the firm continues making the magazine digitally accessible with its first issue of 2021.

Through the magazine's pages, readers are invited to vicariously enjoy engaging stories that bring to life beautiful locales via Douglas Elliman's portfolio of resale, new development and rental properties across the nation. Highlights include a cover story on an iconic estate in Southampton Village, built in the heyday of 19th century Hamptons summer society (Historic Gem, p.12), a special report (Celebrating Home, p. 16) on discovering the untapped potential of a home through re-imagination and design, and an exclusive feature on the backyard cinemas that are allowing family and friends to escape the ordinary without ever leaving the home (Alfresco Home Theaters, p. 18).

"We've all spent much of our time at home this past year, with many of us reconnecting with the sanctuary of this space and re-imagining the ways in which we live, work, and entertain in a home," said Scott Durkin, President and COO of the real estate giant.

"With this Spring/Summer issue, we wanted to truly celebrate the versatility and comforts of home, while providing inspiration and escapist journeys into the lifestyles in Douglas Elliman's markets nationwide, including New York City, Long Island, the Hamptons, Westchester, Connecticut, Florida, Massachusetts, Texas, Colorado and California."

Additional spotlights in the content-filled Spring/Summer issue include:

- Inspired Kitchens: an aspirational piece on kitchen design and dream culinary amenities
- Planting with a Purpose: a look at the new crop of home gardens and what plantings are trending
- Backyard Oases: a piece dedicated to the emergence of high design in outdoor structures
- Rock Stars: Crystals, said to possess calming, soothing powers, are finding their way into home decor
- Spirit Free: a feature on cocktails without the kick – but all the flavor – gaining popularity
- Meditation Goes Mainstream: a feature on how mindfulness can curb stress and improv concentration
- A feature on Luxury Hospitality Reimagined
- A guide on How to Find the Perfect Suburb to Suit You

“Our Spring/Summer issue is an exploration into the full potential of a home,” said Susan de França, President and CEO of Douglas Elliman Development Marketing. “Through stunning visuals and engaging storytelling, readers will find inspiration and essential wisdom about the process of buying, selling, renting, or renovating.”

Additionally, for all Elliman markets nationwide, there is a representative column, My Neighborhood, written by a long-time resident. This issue features guides to NYC’s Fort Green neighborhood (Brooklyn), Long Island’s Setauket and Bridgehampton on the East End, Florida’s Coconut Grove, Houston’s Third Ward (Texas), and Silver Lake, L.A. in California. Readers will also enjoy an international My Neighborhood feature on Lisbon, Portugal.
